THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Tuesday, 14th November: Today we remember all the beatified Martyrs of the Diocese. Thursday, 16th November, is the feast day of St Edmund of Abingdon who is the patron saint of our recently formed Deanery. He was a merchant who became a monk and taught arts at Oxford University. He was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury in 1233.

The Dedication of the Churches of St Peter and St Paul's Outside the Wall is remembered on Saturday, 18th November. Dedicated to two apostles, St Peter's is probably the most famous Church in the world while St Paul's is built on the site where St Paul was believed to have been beheaded. The two churches, although miles apart, were linked by a roofed colonnade of marble columns for hundreds of years.

WELCOME TO FATHER TIBOR SZENDE & CANON ALAN FINLAY

Next weekend we welcome Father Tibor Szende to say Mass on Saturday at 6.30pm. On Sunday Canon Alan Finlay will say the 8.30 and 10.00am Masses. We hope they enjoy their time with us.

THE PAINTING OF THE CRUCIFIXION

Vincent Brown is the artist who painted Canon Gregory's portrait, that was unveiled at the end of the Centenary Mass on 17th March, earlier this year. Vincent has completed his latest commission for St Patrick's Church to mark the centenary year 1923-2023. His painting of The Crucifixion was unveiled by Cardinal Turkson at the end of the Celebration Mass, recently. You can watch the video of Vincent's process of creating the painting on the parish website.

POPE FRANCIS TWEET

The presence of children is a sign that goes straight to the hearts of all adults. It is the voice of innocence that questions us and makes us think, that forces us to ask ourselves: What are we doing with our world, our planet, our society? What future are we preparing for you?

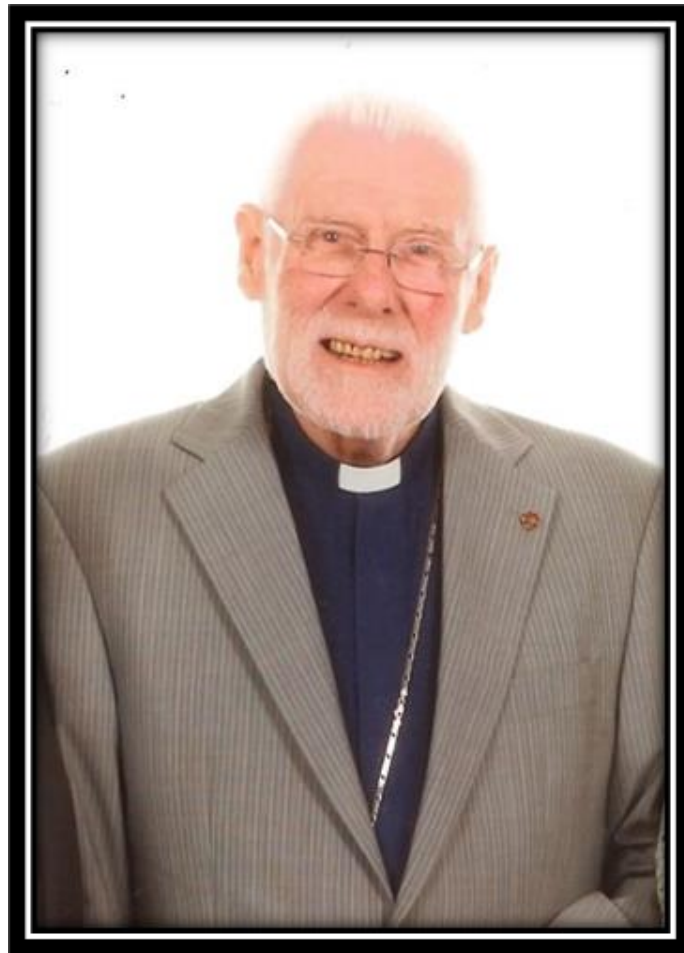

BAPTISM

(1) Baptisms take place on the first and third Sunday of each month at 11.30am (after the 10.00am Mass).
